

of application through these discussions, reducing the need for repeat consultation and enabling faster decision making.

2.16.57 The document contains a description of the public consultations that were conducted. These consisted of Public Workshops and Drop in Meetings.

2.17 Summary

2.17.1 The process resulting in the preparation of the Indicative Land Use Plan for An Camas Mòr has taken place over a considerable length of time. Environmental considerations and the examination of alternatives have been an essential and integral part of this process throughout.

2.17.2 The process, which has included Workshops and Consultations, has involved the examination of alternative sites and layouts for An Camas Mòr.

2.17.3 The key documents containing information used in the preparation of the Indicative Land Use Plan and the Environmental Impact Assessment support the Outline Planning Application.